

moved for detention to which the defendant waived the question of detention at this time.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

- offenses of conspiracy to distribute marijuana. The maximum penalty is in excess of ten years. There is therefore a rebuttable presumption against the defendant's release based upon both dangerousness and flight risk, under Title 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e).
- (2) The defendant is viewed as a risk of nonappearance because he has no ties to the Western District of Washington, he had been living in Costa Rica and has an unstable employment history as reported by U.S. Pretrial Services. At his initial appearance in the Central District of California before the Honorable Margaret A. Nagle he was ordered detained before transfer to this district.

Based upon the foregoing information, which is also consistent with the recommendation of detention by U.S. Pre-trial Services, it appears that there is no condition or combination of conditions that would reasonably assure future Court appearances and/or the safety of other persons or the community.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- (l) The defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (2) The defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which

(4) The clerk shall direct copies of this order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States Pretrial Services Officer.

DATED this 16th day of October, 2007.
